

The low cost and availability of FRS radios precludes the need to allow unlicensed operations on 446.0-446.1 MHz. Such operations would interfere with licensed operations in major metropolitan areas.